Numb. 7388.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 25. to Saturday March 29. 1735.

Copenhagen, March 29, N. S.

M. Lewenorn, who had the Superintendency of the Commissioners both for Land and Sea Service, as well as the Post of Secretary at War, has now resigned the former Charge, and accordingly took his Leave Yesterday of that Board: He is succeeded by Count Danneskiold Samsoe, whose successful Application to the Service, especially in Things relating to the Navy, begins to be much taken Notice of and encouraged by the King. Rear Admiral Bille, who had the Inspection of the Holme, and consequently of the Fleet, is dismissed from that Employment, which is given to Commodore Suhm. Last Night about Nine a-Clock, the Body of the late Princess Sophia Hedwig was carried in great Solemnity from her Palace of Charlottenburg, in order to be interred this Day at Boschild. The Windows in every Street through which the Procession passed, were illuminated, with Decorations proper to the Occasion; Minute Guns were fired from the Ramparts, and no usual Mark of Respect or Ceremony omitted.

Admiralty Office, March 27, 1735.

These are to give Notice, that my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have given Directions, that the R's put against the Names of such Men who belong'd to His Majesty's Fleet, and have absented therefrom without Leave, or staid longer from their Duty than the Leave given them by their Captains, shall be turned into D's, if the said Men return to their proper Ships on or before the 12th Day of April next; otherwise they will forfeit their Wages, and be proceeded against as Deserters from his Majesty's Service.

By Command of their Lordships,

J. Burchett.

Wine Licence Office, March 21, 1734.

His Majesty's Commissioners for Managing the Duty arising from Wine Licences, give Notice, That constant Attendance is given at their Office in Arundel-street in the Strand, for the Dispatch of the Business thereof, on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, in the Forenoon, Holidays excepted.

Lead Office, March 25, 1735.

The Court of Assistants of the Corporation for smelting down Lead with Pit Coal and Sea Coal, do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the said Corporation will be held at their House in Ingram Court, Fen-church-street, London, on Thursday the 3d of April next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon; it being one of the Half Yearly Courts.
